

Contribution ID: 17

Type: not specified

Symbology for classical and multiple polylogarithms—a retrospective

Tuesday, 16 December 2025 14:00 (45 minutes)

We will try to outline the journey of the first polylogarithmic “symbol” as we perceived it personally, from its inception in algebraic K-theory to its heyday when Goncharov single-handedly developed the multiple polylog version, and highlight some of its striking successes.

Presenter: GANGL, Herbert