

Contribution ID: 18

Type: not specified

Polylogs and more in classical field theory

Tuesday, 16 December 2025 14:45 (45 minutes)

It was recently understood that our favorite classes of special functions are not exclusive to quantum field theory, but also feature in perturbative computations in classical physics.

I will explain how this comes about and provide a brief survey of the appearance of various classes of special functions in computations in perturbative classical General Relativity.

Presenter: PARRA-MARTÍNEZ, Julio