

Heavy quark masses from lattice QCD.

Thursday, 8 October 2015 09:25 (25 minutes)

I will review progress in quark mass determinations from lattice QCD simulation, focusing on results for charm and bottom mass. These are of particular interest for precision Higgs studies. Recent determinations have achieved percent-level uncertainties with controlled systematics. Future prospects for these calculations will also be discussed.

Primary author: Dr LYTLE, Andrew (University of Glasgow)

Presenter: Dr LYTLE, Andrew (University of Glasgow)

Session Classification: Status of QCD

Track Classification: Status of QCD