How to get there

The entrance is at the top of a parking lot of Malostranské náměstí (square) – see attached map (denoted Matematicko-fyzikální fakulta). It is the white building.

The best way using public transport is

- take metro A line to Malostranska, and
- either walk on Valdštejnska for 10 minutes
- or go one stop with a tram no 12, 20 (direction Sidlisté Barrandov) or 22 (direction Nadrazi Hostivar) – the 26-CZK ticket validated in metro is still valid in the tram
- get off at Malostranske namesti stop and find the entrance to the faculty at the upper side of the parking lot
- enter the building, take the stair/lift down and find your way to the club

Sightseeing alternative:

- take a walk on the Charles Bridge from the Old Town to the Lesser Town (Mala Strana)
- continue Mostecká street for 300 m, turn right at the tram line and you are at the Malostranske square – turn left and enter the white building

Contacts:

Zdenek Dolezal, +420 731 039 464 – mobile phone, or +420 221 914 317 (bar) warning: there is a poor GSM signal in the club, so phone to the bar if you get lost

Further info:

The site will be accessible from ~18 hrs.
